

Sock club guidelines

- A mutual agreement to not sell any portion of the sock club for the sock club year. Club members pay a premium for an exclusive product. Blue Moon honors its end of this agreement by not selling club merchandise to the public throughout the sock club year. We ask that members honor the same agreement and wait until 2009 to sell any part of their club package.
- Any shipping address changes must be sent to sockclub@bluemoonfiberarts.com.
- Errors in packaging or shipping need to be brought immediately to our attention at the email address listed above.
- Game and contest rules are posted for each individual contest on the blog.
- Sock club members can purchase extra skeins of the exclusive club colorways at any time throughout the sock club year. The cost is the current website price plus shipping. Members can do this on the website at the special sock club members area.
- Please take care in posting photos and info about the current club shipments. The use of spoiler buttons or alerts is helpful.
- Check the blog often for Rockin' Sock Club® news and contests!

Rockin' Sock Club 2008 Mission Statement

To boldly go where no sock knitting club has gone before. To bring our members high quality sock yarn from a very extensive color palette. (No color is left behind!) To expand our knitting horizons with various skills, techniques, stitch patterns, heels, and toes. To challenge our knitting selves and create socks that are both functional and beautiful, that make feet all over the planet happy. A club and a community that involves helping, sharing, and fun. Lots and lots of fun.

A sense of adventure and humor are mandatory!

Please fill out the form below and then return it to Blue Moon before November 1st. This guarantees you a space in next year's club. Your credit card/check will not be charged/cashed until January of 2008. (After November 1st, registration will open to new members.)
